Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Organization and Conduct of a Market Service in the Department of Agriculture, Discussed at a Conference Held at the Department on April 29, 1913 (3) Methods and cost of distribution, which will include a study of prices paid the producer, changes of ownership between producer and consumer, prices and profits at each stage, and final price paid by consumer. (4) Transportation problems of specific localities, which will include the delivery of products to local consumers and shipment to distant markets. At the invitation of the Secretary. Mr. G. Harold Powell, formerly of the department, but for some time general manager of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, the most extensive cooperative nonprofit rural organization in the country, addressed the meeting on the subject of his experience with organized agricultural industries, with some suggestions regarding work that might be undertaken by the department along this line. The activities of the exchange in question are confined to citrus fruits: nevertheless, its organization and operations involving a considerable number of the principles and problems which would necessarily enter into...

Reviews

An incredibly amazing ebook with perfect and lucid answers. It is written in basic terms and never difficult to understand. It has been written in an exceptionally basic way and it is only right after I finished reading this ebook in which it in fact modified me, affected the way I really believe.
