Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Fantasy writer Vickie M. Briscoe builds on the enchantment of her debut novel, A Legacy Arcane, and lifts the young, enigmatic character of Darian to epic ranks in A Medallion Sundered, her second book set in a majestic world of mortals, magic folk, and sorcerers. An adventure of mythic proportions, this much-anticipated, second young adult fantasy novel offers majestic incarnations and an unforgettable story of friendship. Here she offers adventure, romance, and a mythic tale of revenge and sacrifice. . From the very beginning of this fast-moving, fantasy thriller, readers are thrown into an ongoing tussle between a sorcerer bent on revenge and a father and son s search for justice. Dramatic and masterfully crafted, A Medallion Sundered offers unforgettable mortals and creatures and brilliant forays into the worlds of adventure and romance. Finally, his vision cleared, and he gazed around the moonlit meadow. Where was he? Why was he lying in the grass? He bounded to his feet, but his body felt massive as he steadied himself on four legs-not two. Glancing down, he saw that the nightmare was a reality. The mist had been real. The sorcerer Garrette s mist had taken his human form away. This was Garrette s revenge against Darian s father. The great black stallion neighed furiously into the wind, rearing and angrily lashing out at the air with his hoofs. With a great lunge, he galloped up the side of the mountain, running furiously until his strength was spent. He stood on the edge of a cliff, gasping for breath, a man trapped in a stallion s body-an equestrian prison. He gave another loud, mournful cry into the night. Darian, youngest...
