It's just how it goes. When is the last time you had a break or took some time to think about your life? Have you shared all the stories? In today's world we're busy paying the bills, working, taking care of children, home schedules and obligations. We move so fast nowadays that I wonder, do we really take time for ourselves or the people in our lives? With technology, we email and text, but it's pretty hard to text a defining moment or life altering decision. And what about the people we see every day, how many opportunities have we missed to share the most important thing in this life-WHO WE ARE! Name one achievement you're proud of. What are your dreams? How about your favorite memory? Does anyone know everything about you? We are all an accumulation of moments that make us who we are: Where we've been, who we've met, things we've done, what we've learned and decisions we've made. Some things are great, some, are not so good, but we are who we are and we should be proud! We are all products of our experiences. Our differences make us unique. We all dream, hope, learn, fail, foible, love, wish and make mistakes, just like everyone else. We have so much in common and we all matter. Grab a pencil, sit back and enjoy the journey!.
