There are scratches on Csar Hawkes arms, a discharged Glock on his coffee table, and a dead woman in his bathtub. Yeah, maybe he brought the waitress home for some fun -- he was too drunk to remember it - but he knows for a fact that he didnt kill her. Hes an agent with the Office of Preternatural Affairs. He doesnt hurt people. He saves them. The cops disagree. Now Csar is running. The search for a shaman. Isobel Stonecrow speaks with the dead. . . for the right price. She brings closure to the bereaved and heals broken hearts. But when she resurrects someone for the wrong client, she ends up on the OPAs most wanted list. One risky solution. Tracking down Isobel is the last case assigned to Csar before he bolts. If he finds her, he can prove that he didnt kill that waitress. He can clear his name, get his job back, and bring justice to the victim. Shes just one witch. Csar has bagged a dozen witches before. How hard can one more...
