A QUESTION YOU MAY BE LEFT WITH AFTER READING THE LAST OF THE SERIES OF 4 EPISODES in this Pam Pretorius Story. How come it was hard for others to see where the continued abuse would lead? And how come the police did not stop the abuse? Do we have too much laws that favor criminals? is it time that communities take the law into their own hands at times? Should community law supersede government law? I believe we should not have to take the law into our own hands unless there is obvious corruption stopping our community from functioning effectively. Then I also think we have gone soft on criminals. Texas and the Death Penalty results in less crime. How wrong can they be? This excuse for a parent should have ended up in jail or in a mental asylum. he was as crazy as they get. I can see it clearer now than when I stood toe to toe with him as a child. Perhaps if I had done him then, none of this would have happened. She would be alive and he, the scourge of the community would be where he belonged. In a wooden box 6 ft underground. he is there now. But after he put almost every member of his family there first. They should have finished the job with the axe back in the beginning. Taken his head clean off. Then an innocent young woman would have lived a life worth living. And we would have judged them to be animals. But what is he now that the truth is out. The worst animal to have lived. A...
