

The Early Childhood Coaching Handbook

By Dathan D. Rush, M'Lisa L. Shelden

Brookes Publishing Co. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Early Childhood Coaching Handbook, Dathan D. Rush, M'Lisa L. Shelden, Evidence-based and highly effective, "coaching" helps early childhood practitioners support other professionals and families as they enhance existing knowledge, develop new skills, and promote healthy development of young children. This hands-on guide shows professionals how to conduct skillful coaching in any setting home, school, or community. An expanded, more practical follow-up to the groundbreaking "Coaching Families and Colleagues in Early Childhood," this is the guidebook that walks professionals step by step through the coaching process and shows them explicitly what best practices look like. Developed by the foremost authorities on coaching and informed by the authors' staff development and technical assistance activities with other professionals, this book directly addresses the real-world challenges of coaching and gives readers concrete guidance on successful strategies and interactions. Preservice and in-service early childhood professionals will master the five characteristics of coaching practices observation, action, reflection, feedback, and joint planning see exactly how to conduct a positive coaching session, with transcripts of successful coaching in action learn about the qualities of effective coaches, including openness to experiences, adaptability, empathy, and honesty adjust coaching techniques to meet the specific needs of...

READ ONLINE

Reviews

An exceptional pdf and the typeface utilized was fascinating to read through. It can be written in straightforward words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just quickly could possibly get a delight of looking at a written ebook.

-- Prof. Arlie Bogan

It is in a single of the best book. This is for those who state there had not been a well worth reading through. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Dr. Barney Robel Jr.