We are happy to present these lectures in book form to the Sunday-school world, and in this way to augment their power and enlarge the scope of their usefulness. The distinguished author needs no introduction, being known far and wide as a man of God, as an able minister of the New Testament, and as a workman that needeth not to be ashamed in all the phases of church life and work. The lectures speak for themselves better than any one can speak for them. Incidentally, they uncover in part the life and machinery at work in Calvary Baptist Church, at Washington, D. C. Dr. Greene speaks from the heart, and, naturally enough, draws his illustrations from the life of this great church, in which he has wrought for nearly a quarter of a century as a wise master builder. His Sunday...
